

Storytelling

Instructions:

Storyteller: Tell the interviewer a brief (60 second) example of something you have done or accomplished that you feel especially proud of.

Interviewer: Listen carefully for the talents, skills, or qualities that made the storyteller feel successful. (i.e. determination, compassion, resourcefulness, etc.) Write down two or three words that capture the qualities, talents, or skills. Share with the storyteller: What I learned about you from your story is . . .

Change partners and repeat. Storyteller, please share a new story with each new interviewer.

Story # 1: What I learned about you from your story is

Story #2: What I learned about you from your story is

Story #3: What I learned about you from your story is

---

adapted from Kate Powers